OPEN SHOW RULES

1. This show is sanctioned by the American Dairy Goat Association and their rules shall govern.
2. The Senior Doe, Junior Doe shows are sanctioned separately both days by ADGA. Bucks are not separately sanctioned.
3. The original Registration certificate is required for all animals six months of age or older. Animals under six months of age may be shown with the original registration certificate or a duplicate application stamped by the ADGA registry office. These certificates must be shown to the show secretary BEFORE THE START OF THE SHOW. No photocopies, telegrams or phone calls will be accepted in lieu of the original certificate.
4. Animals are to be checked in prior to 8:30 am on Saturday unless prior arrangements have been made. The show will start promptly at the times stated.
5. The base date for determining the age of the animal is the date that the animal is being shown.
6. No dairy goats with horns may be shown.
7. The entry fee shall be $4.00 per animal per class per ring if received by May 13, 2012. If entering more than 12 animals, the entry fee will be $3.50. Late entry fee is $5.00 per animal per class per ring, no group discount. There will be no refund of entry monies.
8. All out of state animals are required by Wisconsin to have an interstate health certificate. All animals must be enrolled in the Scrapie program. Please have your information ready. Goats with a health condition noted by the show committee will be removed from the barns and not shown. If the exhibitor requests a veterinary review, the cost of a veterinary visit will be paid by the exhibitor. ALL goats will be examined before the start of the show. Please check your animals carefully.
9. Clipping is optional.
10. All exhibitors must furnish their own feed and equipment. NEW- WDGA will have shavings, straw & hay available for purchase. Please let committee know what you will need.
11. Pen fee is $4.00 per pen. Pens will be assigned. Please place bedding in center of aisle before departing.
12. * Judging will begin on Saturday at 9:00 AM CDT and Sunday at 8:00 AM ****
