OPEN SHOW RULES

1. This show is sanctioned by the American Dairy Goat Association and their rules shall govern.
2. The Senior Doe, Junior Doe shows are sanctioned separately both days by ADGA.. Bucks are not separately sanctioned.
3. The original Registration certificate is required for all animals six months of age or older. Animals under six months of age may be shown with the original registration certificate or a duplicate application stamped by the ADGA registry office. These certificates must be shown to the show secretary BEFORE THE START OF THE SHOW. No photocopies, telegrams or phone calls will be accepted in lieu of the original certificate.
4. Animals are to be checked in prior to 8:30 am on Saturday unless prior arrangements have been made.
5. The base date for determining the age of the animal is the date that the animal is being shown.
6. No dairy goats with horns may be shown.
7. The entry fee shall be $4.00 per animal per class per ring if received by May 7, 2016. Entries emailed on the 7th are considered early entries. Check should be mailed immediately after the 7th. Late entry fee is $5.00 per animal per class per show. No entries will be processed unless fees are paid, either by PayPal or check. Checks may be postdated May 21, 2016. There will be no refund of entry fees, substitutions can be made as long as it is prior to start of the show during check in.
8. All out of state animals are required by Wisconsin to have an interstate health certificate. All animals must be enrolled in the Scrapie program. Please have your information ready. Goats with a health condition noted by the show committee will be removed from the barns and not shown. If the exhibitor requests a veterinary review, the cost of a veterinary visit will be paid by the exhibitor. ALL goats will be examined before the start of the show. Please check your animals carefully.
9. Clipping is optional due to spring weather, but please maintain animal cleanliness for health and sanitation reasons.
10. All exhibitors must furnish their own feed and equipment. - WDGA will have shavings, straw & hay available for purchase. Please fill out on entry page where it is asked for quantities- please understand that due to seasonal conditions and local demand, price can be subject to change for hay, straw, and shavings.
11. Pen fee is $4.00 per pen (INCLUDING tack pens!). Please place bedding in center of aisle before departing. Exhibitors can show out of trailers but must park to allow traffic around barns.
